

Offside Chance

Mercy Celeste

Judah Brody meets William Slater and its loathe at first sight. Jude had spent his whole life in his famous brothers shadow. Returning to New Orleans seemed like a good idea now that Levi was back home. But Jude couldnt turn around without something of Levis getting in his way. In this case its Levis best friend, a three hundred pound knuckle-dragger named Slayer, who likes strippers, football, porn and making Judes life miserable-not necessarily in that order. William Slaters season couldnt get much worse. He lost his house to fire, his contract was set to expire, and his prospects of getting picked up by another team were slim to none. House sitting for his best friend was the only bright spot in an otherwise bleak New Orleans winter. Until Levis stuck up nerd of a brother came to stay. A freak winter snow storm, deep familial secrets, and a whole lot of male/male bonding wasnt exactly in the game plan. But bragging rights were on the line and there wasnt an offside chance in hell of this game going into overtime. Authors Note: Book three in the Southern Scrimmage series and should be read in order.
