Burr, the democratic vicepresident and traitor, who has now gone home to France, ought to be exhibited for the instruction of the People, in every village. Giles must have been liable to have been YoRK-Jheard by Mrs. Clark, who, on a July day, when the weather was at blood heat, must have been in a melting mood and susceptible of impressions. But he is an advocate of Non-Intercourse. The officers of the Revenue, notwithstanding they were in such a taking fit, and had conceived such vain & high blown hope of the immense wealth they mould receive as the ransom of their Captives, have not half so good a chance of a prize as those adventurers who will call at Cufhing and Appletons, one door weft of central Building, and purchafe a Ticket or quarter in Harvard College Lottery now drawing. Salem Gazette, July 12, 1811. Mr. Pardon Sheldon, a respectable citizen of Providence, was the fortunate holder of the $20,000 prize in the North Carolina Lottery which was drawn some days since. Salem Observer, Dec. 17, 1823. A Speedy Cure for a Broken Fortune. I O all those who bitterly complain of the great--dearth of the root of all evil, and a want of confidence in these speculating times, and who, tremblingly anticipate a long and doubtful conflict, in money operations the coming season, the following beautiful and brilliant schemes offer the means of a sure and an immediate relief. The Grand State Lottery, Fourth Class Extra, with a capital prize of $10,000, a prize of 500, and 5 prizes of 1000, will draw THIS DAY. Tickets $3 & parts in proportion.
